Memories From My Heart

*Mama...where do we start...Well,
I guess we'll go searching through our broken hearts,
We know that you are here with us,
We feel your presence near...The time we spent with you
Will keep us going, as this is what you wanted.
It's not always easy to keep it together,
Yes, we know...Our promise to you!
No, your tears were not in vain...We will Mama...
Being there with you till your final breath, God only knows how that felt.
In each of our own way, when we close our eyes,
yes Mama...we see you.
Heaven must be rejoicing! You are now with so many of our loved ones.
In time...this pain will go away, as we get use to knowing
you are in a better place and breathing heavens air!
Until we see you again...Your Girls!*

Obituary

Suzie (Sue) Ellen Dilliehunt- Mc Neal—On September 17, 1943 a daughter was born, to Rushell Lee Sr. and Jessie Mae Dilliehunt. She was the third born of five children, their only girl. Suzie Ellen Dilliehunt was named after both of her grandmothers. She didn't like her name so she shortened it to Sue! Sue loved playing with her brothers so much so she was called a tomboy. Sue played and beat the boys so much that her older brother told her let the boys win sometimes! Sue never did. Her cousin Wendell taught her how to shoot marbles that was a fond memory of hers. She learned a lot of things from the men in her family. Sue was the pride and joy of her dad "Big D" all she had to do was ask and it was hers. Sue attended school in the Richmond, CA area. She started working and met and married Isaiah Wesley McNeal to that union two girls were born Tonya, and Patricia. Sue was a great spirit so much so that when her younger brother had a daughter, Waltrice, Sue raised her since two days old. Waltrice was her heart. She had a great disposition, a huge presence and an even bigger smile. Sue started at Farechild and excelled. Not only did she become upper management, she met and made life long friends. She loved that job. When we say she loved that job, she loved that job. So much so that she had her mom cooking for them, and taking her kids to all of there annual picnics and anticipating all holiday events until the job ended. Sue started planning her own family events. She loved having her family together. Sue lived a full life until she became ill. Even during her illness, she still took care of her mother and siblings. This brought her much joy and to start to lose them, it was tough for her. Sue was called home, her work was done. Today we celebrate the life of a great woman, here at the church were she accepted Christ at an early age. Sue's father " Big D" and mother Jessie Mae proceeded her in death along with her three brothers Walter, Jerry, and Orval. Also one Son in law Covan Van Hook Sr., along with a host of first cousins whom she loved dearly. They are all resting together in peace. Sue loves and leaves to cherish her memory her daughters Tonya Vanhook of Pinole, CA and Patricia Morris of Sacramento CA. Her special niece Waltrice Dilliehunt of Sacramento CA, one brother Rushell Dilliehunt Jr. of Richmond CA., one son in -law Carlos Morris of Sacramento CA., her three Grandsons Covan Vanhook II, Carlos Morris II, Khalil Morris. One Grand daughter Khalia Morris, two great-grand sons Covan III, and Noray Vanhook. Four nephews Rushell III, Jerry II, Shaka, and Ahmad Dilliehunt. Seven nieces Michele, Tammy, Juanita, Tammy, Shonda, Javon, Angel Dilliehunt. Three sister in-laws Sharon Dilliehunt- Reed, Johnny Mae Dilliehunt, and Hattie Smith Miles. Four brother in-laws James, Robert, Richard and David Powell. One god daughter Christine Warren. And host of great nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

*To those I love & those who love me,
when I am gone
Release me, let me go.*

*I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, be happy that we had so many years I gave to you my love.*

You can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness.

Thank you for the love you each have shown but now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve awhile for me if you must then let your grief be comforted by trust.

*It's only for a while that we must part. So bless the memories within your heart,
I wont be far away.*

For life goes on. So if you need me call & I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near. And if you listen with your heart you will hear all of my love around you, soft & clear.

*And then when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say Welcome Home.*

Sue Ellen

*Words cannot explain....Eyes did not see...
However! God knows...our hearts, the love,
The love...Our legacy...tough act to follow!*

RIP We all miss you!

Ecclesiastes 3:1-10

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven; A Time to be born, and a time to die; A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; A time to break down; and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; A time to mourn and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; A time to keep and a time to cast away; A time to rend and a time to sew; A time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love and a time to hate; A time of war and a time of peace.

Acknowledgments

The family of wishes to thank each of you for your prayers, visits, cards, flowers and every act of kindness. Each is of such comfort and assurance that we are not alone in our hour of bereavement. May God bless each of you; please keep us in your prayers.
